BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, every child deserves the chance to grow up in a loving, stable family and adoption is a beautiful way to build a family; and

WHEREAS, caring adults can make all the difference in the lives of young people, sibling groups, children of different ethnicities and youth who have been harmed by abuse; and

WHEREAS, last year, more than 1,413 foster children in North Carolina were adopted; and

WHEREAS, more than 852 foster children in North Carolina, with an average age of eight years old, are currently legally available for adoption, and more will continually become available;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim November 2007, as "ADOPTION AWARENESS MONTH" in North Carolina. I commend this observance to our citizens as an opportunity to celebrate foster and adoptive families and spread awareness on behalf of the hundreds of foster children in North Carolina who are waiting for a loving family. I further encourage the community, businesses, groups, schools, faith-based organizations and families to participate in efforts to find permanent, loving families for North Carolina's waiting children.
